Two ways to go

There are two main ways you can make big money online.

1. You can sell other people's products and services as an affiliate.
2. You can develop a product or service and sell this.

Most people start out selling other people's products because you can get off to a fast start, it takes less time, and you can get some cash flowing to you and give you the boost you need to keep going.

But here is where you need to make some critical decisions that will determine which road you take, what lifestyle you enjoy, and how much you earn. It would be best if you choose what you are going to promote carefully.

So let's set some rules of the road.

You won't be able to sell a product or service effectively if you don't use it, like it, and believe in it.

One of America's most successful inventors and salespeople, Ron Popeil, believed that the product is always the star. The object that sold best was the one that sold itself.

The more you like and use the product, the more believable you will be when you attempt to sell it. You will make more sales and earn more money.

So the first decision you need to make is -

How Much?

"How much money do you want to earn a week, month, or a year?"

$1,000 – $2,000 – $5,000 - $10,000 or more.

Let's say you decide to sell a $20.00 product where you earn a $10.00 commission on each sale. It will take ten sales to make $100, 100 sales to earn $1,000, and 1,000 sales to earn $10,000.

So if you want to earn $10,000 a month, you would need to make 1,000 sales a month, 250 sales a week, or 36 sales a day.

Do you think you could do that?

If you are starting from scratch, probably not. This task might even be a stretch for a seasoned marketer or salesperson.

But what about this...

You decide to sell a high-ticket item that gives you the potential to earn $500.00 per sale. It only takes two sales to earn $1,000 (not 100), and it only takes 20 sales to make $10,000.

Do you think you might be able to make 20 sales a month, or five sales a week, or one sale every 36 hours?

Making $10,000 a month doesn't seem so hard now, right?

The next decision you need to make is -

What type?

What kind of high-ticket item should you promote?

What kind of product or service will solve the problem your list members, friends, or prospects have?

I recommend that you -

1. Choose a niche where people have money.
2. Choose a product or service people need.
3. Choose a product that you believe in and like.

If you run any business online, even an affiliate business, you need to spend money on advertising.

Every business must have money to spend on advertising or know where and how to get money to spend on advertising.

If you don't, then you don't have a serious business, you have a hobby, and you won't make much money online.

When I was Art Director at Ogilvy & Mather in Australia, we had a simple rule. If clients wanted to be successful and have us do their advertising for them, they had to be willing to spend at least 10% of their annual net income on advertising.

Every business needs to advertise at sites where the readers and users are active and engaged and want or need the product you promote.

And finally, to make sales, you need to believe in the product or service you are selling, and you can only gain that belief, confidence, and authenticity by using the product or service.

Ron Popeil once said -

"The easiest thing to do in the world is to sell a product I believe in."

High Ticket Products and Services!

Selling high ticket items is similar to selling anything else. It just requires more explaining, more emotional connection, and more persuasion.

So let's start with step one.

If you want to make big money online, you should either have a list or be building a list of engaged, targeted subscribers. This list should be priority number one.

You will sell more high-ticket items if you do this.

Here are the mechanics of selling high-ticket products or services.

Explain it clearly in simple, easy-to-understand language.

When you sell a high-ticket item, always try to explain it in the simplest terms possible. Talk to people about your experiences. Share, in detail, what kind of difference the product or service has made in your life and how it has made your life simpler, easier, and more productive.

Please make sure you talk to your potential customers in their language, not your industry or niche gobbledegook.

By the time the user has finished reading your presentation, they should know precisely how the product works, and they should be able to picture themselves using it every day.

Connect emotionally.

Try to describe how you felt when you used the product or service for the first time. Illustrate how it made you feel when you began to achieve success with the product or service.

Try to impart the thrill of sharing the success you achieved with your partner or friends, or associates.

You want your readers to connect with you emotionally because you will make more sales if you do.

Be persuasive.

The key to selling is to persuade people that the product or service you are offering is what they have been looking for, and it will solve the major problem they have.

Price has very little to do with sales at this stage.

It is incredible how fast people can find the funds they need when you convince them your product or services will solve their problem.

"Include a kitten with your offer and he might listen."

Persuasion techniques

There are many highly effective persuasion techniques you can use when you present your product or service.

1. Reciprocity (the joy of giving)

Most commonly, this technique is used by adding value bonuses to a product or service, or it is used in giveaway sites to build your opt-in list. When we give something away free, others feel compelled to reciprocate somehow and often return the favor by purchasing our product or service.

2. The WOW factor

This technique is most effective where the product owner proves to you that their product or service is worth $XXXX, usually a price that is 5x – 10x what they are asking.

When the prospect finally sees the actual sale price, they are pleasantly surprised. We call this the wow factor.

3. Commitment (foot in the door)

Here we get the prospect to make a smaller commitment that leads to the more significant commitment. Let's say you are selling a product or service for $1,200.00.

For many, this is a large sum of money and often too much in one bite, but if you break it down and tell them all they need to invest now is $200.00 and then five more payments of $200.00 each month for the next five months, all of a sudden it is not beyond reach anymore.

As the prospect makes a small commitment, they also make a more significant commitment.

4. Social Proof (people just like you)

Social proof means different things to different people. Testimonials on websites, blogs, and emails, are a valuable source of social proof. You'll find them as an essential part of most product or service sales pitches.

It would be best to use testimonials of people who are just like the prospects you are trying to reach.

5. Reduce it to the ridiculous

Selling high-ticket items is never about price. It is always about the value of the product or service.

So, what do you do with a high-priced product?

You reduce the price to what seems a meager price by focusing on the offer's payment plan and time frame, not the number or price.

Keep reading, and I will demonstrate clearly how these five persuasion techniques work on an actual high-ticket item.

Whatever product you decide to sell, make sure the product or service-

- (a) Is needed by a lot of people
- (b) Solves a critical problem
- (c) Makes it possible to earn large commissions

Ready, set, go.

You can resell many products and programs and earn a nice commission — some range from $1,000 up to $25,000 and more.

Most high-ticket products or services require investment, and most expect you to have a proven track record of selling high ticket items. Some offer products, services, or training. Some offer eBooks and software.

So, with all these choices facing you, where should you start?

Where can you get your feet wet, sell a product or service that sells itself, and earn a sizeable commission to boot?

I recommend that you start with a site like Profit From Free Ads.

PFFA contains all of the elements you need to succeed, all of the tools you need to build a real business, and all of the benefits that will enable you to earn high commissions.

Profit From Free Ads is a quality advertising site that offers free and paid advertising, something every marketer and small business owner needs. Advertising is the lifeblood of all businesses, and Profit from Free Ads delivers in spades.

Let's talk about Ad Pack level 7 at Profit From Free Ads, as this is the level you need if you want BIG commissions.

You can earn large commissions.

Imagine earning up to $584.50 per sale or up to 50% commission across seven popular levels. There is no limit as to how much money you can earn at Profit From Free Ads.

You can send solo ads for life.

There is no more paying for each solo ad. You log in every few days, enter your offers and click send. It doesn't get any easier.

This benefit alone could be worth tens of thousands of dollars in sales to you over time, and it will, most certainly, save you a lot of money. Let me show you how.

There are solo ad vendors online that charge from $50.00 to $110.00 per 100 clicks. That's per click, not per sale.

With Ad Pack 7 at Profit From Free Ads, you get to send solo ads every two days. You get 15 solo ads a month, 180 solo ads a year, 900 solo ads over five years.

Even if you only paid $50.00 per 100 clicks with other vendors, 900 solo ads over the next five years would set you back $45,000, so $997.00 one-time is a considerable saving, don't you agree?

You can build a list using a proven system.

One of the simplest and most effective ways to build a list is to give away something valuable free, and there is nothing better than free ad view credits. With Profit From Free Ads, you give away free advertising, 70,000 ad credits with a value of $350.00.

You tell your contacts, friends, and associates where you advertise, give them your Profit From Free Ads affiliate link and ask them to collect their free advertising credits.

You can advertise your sites for life

You can use up to 8 banner ads, eight text ads, plus internal blog posts to get your business seen by thousands of prospects. The more exposure you get for your business, the more prospects you get and the more sales you can make. Profit From Free Ads provides everything you need to make a profit.

You get 830,000 credits when you upgrade to level 7. That's a mammoth value of $41,91.00. You also get 800,000 advertising credits each month, and that's an additional value of $3,990.00 each month.

Now I said I would demonstrate how the different persuasion techniques work on a high-ticket product.

So, let's continue to use the site Profit From Free Ads and do a sales presentation.

The Presentation

The presentation below assumes that I have shown you the benefits and earning potential of Profit From Free Ads, and we are now in the home stretch.

Ad Pack 7, the top-level at Profit From Free Ads, is $1169.00.

If you choose this package when you sign up, you can own it for an investment of $997.00 and save yourself $172.00.

This discount will give you a massive amount of valuable advertising.

- You will get all the advertising credits included in all seven ad packs.
- You will get 8-lifetime banner ads.
- You will get 8-lifetime text ads.
- You can email all PFFA users every two days for life.
- You can email your sign-ups every two days for life.
- You earn 50% commissions on sales you generate across seven levels.
- You will get over $285,000 worth of text, banner, and solo ad advertising over the next five years.

Now you are maybe thinking -

It costs too much.

And you are right.

Even at the heavily discounted price of $997.00, the level 7 Ad pack seems out of reach for many people.

But let me ask you a question -

How much is too much when you get lifetime banner advertising, lifetime text ad advertising, lifetime email advertising, and lifetime blog advertising worth over $285,000?

Let's assume for a minute that lifetime only means five years.

$997.00 split over five years is -

$199.40 a year

$16.61 a month

$3.83 a week, or just

0.55 cents a day

Isn't an investment in a service that allows you to earn tens of thousands of dollars over the next five years worth 55 cents a day to you?

If $997.00 is too much of a stretch for you right now, you can split this into more manageable size investments of $350.00 a month for three months or $275.00 a month for four months.

But wait, there's more -

It's time for a -

Suppose you take advantage of this opportunity today and invest in Ad Pack 7. In that case, we will double your ability to build your list and make even more money by giving you 10 million list-building credits at our social site, Sokule. This bonus is worth $12,500.

And there's still more.

We will also give you 1 million ad credits at our popular site FrontPage Mail – a bonus that is worth $5,000.

You've seen how you can use Profit From Free Ads to send solo ads to all members as well as your downline members.

Now I would like you to picture in your mind sales and money flowing into your account as people respond to your offers.

Imagine the joy you will experience when you tell your wife or significant other how much you earned online today.

Picture the expression on their face, the small tear in the corner of their eye, and their gentle nod of approval.

This is what you want, isn't it?

Click here to own a Founder account at PFFA today.

Some final thoughts.

I think you'll agree that this is an outstanding opportunity.

I've shown you how getting lifetime access to the PFFA online email marketing system could be worth at least $45,000 to you over the next five years.

I've shown you how the banner and text ads are worth at least $240,000 over the next five years, and I've shown you that blog advertising could increase your exposure and income even more.

So here's what I want you to do now -

If you are not a member of Profit From Free Ads, then click here to join now. You'll be glad you did!

If you are a free member, log in to your account and invest in level 7 now, it will be the best decision you make this year.

If you are already at one of the lower AD Pack levels and you cannot manage level 7 yet, try to get to at least Ad Pack, level 4, or higher as quickly as you can. Your earning power depends on it.

Remember; you only get paid up to the level at which you join.

Let me give you an example.

Let's say you are an Ad Pack 1 level member.

You get paid a 20% commission on level 1 sales only, which means you earn $3.40 per sale. If someone you sponsor moves up to level 4, you get paid $3.40 because you are at level 1.

If you were at Ad Pack level 4 and your sponsor moves up to level 4, you would get paid $97.30 because you are at level 4.

There is a huge difference in earning power in just four levels.

The higher the ad pack level, the more money you earn. It's a simple decision to make.

So how much do you want to earn?

Join here and change your lifestyle today.

Throughout this presentation, I have shown you how to use a few persuasion techniques. You don't need to use them all, just those that work best for your product or service.

I used...

Reciprocity (the joy of giving)

The WOW factor

Commitment (foot in the door), and

Reduce it to the ridiculous

I could have used additional persuasion techniques -

Like Social Proof (people just like you)

And I could have shared some of our member's comments with you, statements like these -

Jeff & Deb Aman

Joining Profit From Free Ads as a Tycoon member was a fantastic decision. The advertising has been directly responsible for MULTIPLE sign-ups in my business.

Carl Goodnight

This program is the best, by far, that Jane and Phil have created. The two of them are powerhouse geniuses. My head is spinning with all the options members will have with this site.

Mike G

What a wonderful idea. I specialize in selling ad space, and I love how you have combined this much-needed service with a pay plan that allows members to earn huge chunks of money.

But there is such a thing as overselling. Use what you need to tell the story and no more.

Finally, I promised I would share words you should never use in any presentation. These are words that master sales trainer J. Douglas Edwards warned us against using. Words he called nasty.

Nasty words that kill sales.

BUY-SELL-SOLD

These are nasty words.

No one wants to buy anything; they have already bought too much.

No one wants you to sell them anything, and they most certainly don't like being sold anything.

But they don't mind owning a product or service.

You've no doubt heard of the pride of ownership. Owning stuff makes you feel good. It makes you feel important.

Click here to own it now - is much better than - click here to buy now.

More nasty words...

PAY – PAYMENT – DOWN PAYMENT – MONTHLY PAYMENT – CASH PRICE – COST

When you are talking about high-ticket items, don't ask for a down payment or a monthly payment. People are paying enough for things already each month.

Call it an investment or a monthly investment.

Investment implies that you get something back, something that is worth more than what you paid.

Your total investment is - sounds much better than – your total cost is, doesn't it?

Here are some different kinds of nasty words.

Trade terms.

Many marketers use words and phrases specific to their niche or business.

When I worked for an advertising agency we would often have salespeople come to the office from the local radio stations and they would all try to sell us a spot or some spots.

But what is a spot?

I have a spot on the rug.

A spot on my shirt.

If I get spots on my body, I am off to the doctor.

Whatever a spot is, it doesn't sound good, does it?

But if they wanted to sell me an ad package, or an ad campaign, or an ad segment, I might be interested.

Talk to your customers in a language they are used to and familiar with. You will help them understand your offer much faster.

DEALS

What is a deal anyway?

You deal cards.

He got dealt a bad hand.

He ran a good deal faster.

He got a great deal of support.

Don't offer deals - present me with an opportunity, or a chance to make money however and you may find me more receptive.

One more...

PITCH

If you are a professional salesperson, you don't make pitches. You make presentations.

What is a pitch anyway?

A pitch is something a baseball player throws.

It is pitch black outside.

It's a sticky black substance you find on roads.

You have probably heard the phrase elevator pitch, which implies that you have 5 minutes to do what? – make a presentation.

So it's a 5-minute presentation, not a pitch.

Be careful with the words you use. What the customer hears or reads may not be what you intended.

Earnings & Income Disclaimers

No Earnings Projections, Promises Or Representations

For purposes of these disclaimers, the term "Author" refers individually and collectively to the Author of this eBook and to the affiliate (if any) whose affiliate links are embedded in this eBook.

You recognize and agree that the Author and the Publisher have made no implications, warranties, promises, suggestions, projections, representations or guarantees whatsoever to you about future prospects or earnings, or that you will earn any money, with respect to your purchase of this eBook, and that the Author and the Publisher have not authorized any such projection, promise, or representation by others.

Any earnings or income statements, or any earnings or income examples, are only estimates of what you might earn. There is no assurance you will do as well as stated in any examples. If you rely upon any figures provided, you must accept the entire risk of not doing as well as the information provided. This applies whether the earnings or income examples are monetary in nature or pertain to advertising credits which may be earned (whether such credits are convertible to cash or not).

There is no assurance that any prior successes or past results as to earnings or income (whether monetary or advertising credits, whether convertible to cash or not) will apply, nor can any prior successes be used, as an indication of your future success or results from any of the information, content, or strategies. Any and all claims or representations as to income or earnings (whether monetary or advertising credits, whether convertible to cash or not) are not to be considered as "average earnings".

Testimonials & Examples

Testimonials and examples in this eBook are exceptional results, do not reflect the typical purchaser's experience, do not apply to the average person and are not intended to represent or guarantee that anyone will achieve the same or similar results. Where specific income or earnings (whether monetary or advertising credits, whether convertible to cash or not), figures are used and attributed to a specific individual or business, that individual or business has earned that amount. There is no assurance that you will do as well using the same information or strategies. If you rely on the specific income or earnings figures used, you must accept all the risk of not doing as well. The described experiences are atypical. Your financial results are likely to differ from those described in the testimonials.

The Economy

The economy, where you do business, on a national and even worldwide scale, creates additional uncertainty and economic risk. An economic recession or depression might negatively affect your results.

Your Success Or Lack of It

Your success in using the information or strategies provided in this eBook depends on a variety of factors. The Author and the Publisher have no way of knowing how well you will do because they do not know you, your background, your work ethic, your dedication, your motivation, your desire, or your business skills or practices. Therefore, neither the Author nor the Publisher guarantees or implies that you will get rich, that you will do as well, or that you will have any earnings (whether monetary or advertising credits, whether convertible to cash or not), at all.

Businesses and earnings derived therefrom involve unknown risks and are not suitable for everyone. You may not rely on any information presented in this eBook or otherwise provided by the Author or the Publisher, unless you do so with the knowledge and understanding that you can experience significant losses (including, but not limited to, the loss of any monies paid to purchase this eBook and/or any monies spent setting up, operating, and/or marketing your business activities, and further, that you may have no earnings at all (whether monetary or advertising credits, whether convertible to cash or not).

Forward-Looking Statements

Materials in this eBook may contain information that includes or is based upon forward-looking statements within the meaning of the securities litigation reform act of 1995. Forward-looking statements give the Author's expectations or forecasts of future events. You can identify these statements by the fact that they do not relate strictly to historical or current facts. They use words such as "anticipate," "estimate," "expect," "project," "intend," "plan," "believe," and other words and terms of similar meaning in connection with a description of potential earnings or financial performance.

Any and all forward-looking statements here or on any materials in this eBook are intended to express an opinion of earnings potential. Many factors will be important in determining your actual results and no guarantees are made that you will achieve results similar to the Author or anybody else. In fact, no guarantees are made that you will achieve any results from applying the Author's ideas, strategies, and tactics found in this eBook.
